Semester II – 2010 / 11 – Course Outline

Course Title: Drama	Grade Level: 10
Course Code: ADD2OK	Credit Value: 1
Prerequisite: ADA1OK and ADD1OK

Course Overview 110 hours

This course requires students to actively explore dramatic forms and techniques, using their own ideas and concerns as well as sources selected from a wide range of authors, genres, and cultures. Student learning will include identifying and using the principles of space, time, voice, and movement in creating, sustaining, and communicating authentic roles within the physical theatre model. The students will assume responsibility in the creation and presentation of the drama and will analyze and reflect on the experience.

Overall Expectations

The overall expectations for each strand have been taken from the Ministry of Education and Training documents as a basis for describing the Dramatic Arts course. Strands may be taught in an independent or an integrated manner; they are listed in no particular order below. Different interpretations of the curriculum will arise in schools based on the needs of their student population or program needs.

Strands:

Course Expectations

Theory: Overall expectations

By the end of this course, students will., demonstrate an understanding of the conventions of role playing and structuring of dramatic works; demonstrate an understanding of the elements and principles of dramatic expression (e.g., voice, movement, production values); identify and describe various dramatic forms (e.g., choral speaking, blocking, styles of acting) and describe the historical origins of these forms.

Strand: Creation: Overall expectations

By the end of this course, students will:

- use various ways to sustain a role within a drama;
- demonstrate an understanding of group responsibility in the creation of a drama;
- create drama through research or the interpretation of a source;
- create and perform dramatic presentations, using knowledge of conventions, performance spaces, and audience perspectives.

Strand: - Analysis: Overall expectations

By the end of this course, students will generate and apply criteria to evaluate their own dramatic presentations; use the vocabulary of dramatic arts to discuss, critique, and review drama presentations in the school and the community; describe similarities in the dramatic arts of their own and other cultures in the global community; demonstrate an understanding of how role taking and the processes of drama are connected to their lives.
