Semester I – 2010 / 11 – Course Outline

Course Title: L'histoire du Canada depuis la Première Guerre mondiale
Course Code: CHC2DF
Grade Level: 10
Credit Value: 1
Prerequisite: none

Teacher: E. Mallet-Jones

Course Overview 110 hours

This course explores the local, national, and global forces that have shaped Canada's national identity throughout the Twentieth Century to the present. Students will investigate the challenges presented by economic, social, and technological changes and explore the contributions of individuals and groups to Canadian culture and society during this period. Students will use critical-thinking and communication skills to evaluate various interpretations of the issues and events of the period and to present their own points of view.

The compulsory Grade 10 course, Canadian History, focuses on the events and personalities that have shaped our nation. Optional Canadian and World Studies courses in Grades 11 and 12 provide further opportunities to investigate Canada's past and examine issues that the country will face in the future.
